Questions And Answers

Q: What is the minimum number of people required to reserve the Picnic Pavilion?

A: The minimum number of people is 100 for both admission and meal tickets. Ask your Account Executive about options for groups under 100.

Q: Are guests allowed to re-enter the Picnic Pavilion once they leave?

A: Guests are not allowed to re-enter the Picnic Pavilion once your outing is over.

Q: Can my organization bring in items/merchandise to be distributed in the Picnic Pavilion?

A: Six Flags does not permit organizations to bring in items for distribution. Six Flags has a list of discounted items available for purchase ranging from shirts to stuffed animals and other novelty items.

Q: When is the final payment required for our company picnic?

A: You have up to seven (7) days following your event to return any unused tickets to your Account Executive or Six Flags via a guaranteed delivery service such as FedEx. Final payment is due 30 days following your picnic date.

Q: Are personal checks acceptable for payment?

A: No. Only company checks, credit cards (Subject to a 2.5% processing fee) or money orders are accepted for payment. Also, two party checks are not accepted.

Q: Are food and beverages allowed to be taken out of the Picnic Pavilion?

A: All food and beverages served in the Picnic Pavilion must be consumed in the Picnic Area.

Q: Can my group stay in the Picnic Pavilion for longer than two hours?

A: Yes. Ask your Account Executive about this special option.

Q: Is there a deposit required to reserve our picnic date?

A: Deposit is not required.

Q: Is there a State of Georgia Sales Tax?

A: Yes, the current 6% sales tax applies to food and Tickets. Any group requesting tax exemptions must submit a copy of their tax exemption certificate upon signing the Outing Agreement.

Q: When must I select a menu for my group?

A: We ask you to select a menu upon signing the Outing Agreement. If you are unable to choose a menu upon signing the Agreement, Six Flags must receive your menu selection by fax or mail 45 days prior to your picnic date.

Q: How does the guaranteed meal count work?

A: You will need to give a final meal guarantee to Six Flags by 10:00am Five (5) business days prior to your picnic or a Monday before a weekend event to ensure the menu you have selected will be served. Your organization will be billed for the number of people served or the final food guarantee, whichever is greater.

Q: Who needs a meal ticket?

A: Anyone entering the Picnic Pavilion must present a full meal ticket. Children two (2) and under eat FREE and do not require a meal ticket.

Q: How long will the food be served?

A: Your food will be served for the first 1 hour of your Pavilion time.
