This dilapidated power plant is still just as functional today as the day it opened, except its purpose is darker and more evil. Anyone who goes near disappears... for good.

FREACKTOWN SIDE SHOW: USA
Once a thriving traveling circus, Freacktown Side Show quickly lost its reputation when jealousy within its community lead to "elimination." Today, outsiders are not welcomed inside, or even near, what's left of the tent.

BOOMTOWN TERROR: Boomtown
In 1786, the Boomtown coal mines were considered the richest mines known to man. Hundreds of miners could constantly be found working in the mines 24 hours a day. On October 13, 1787, the mines collapsed killing everyone in the tunnels. Legend states that for reasons unknown the mines became cursed from the day they were opened after a miner encountered a fateful end due to a dynamite mishap. It is because of this curse that the souls of all who were killed that dreadful day became trapped in the mines forever.

VOODOO SWAMP: Boardwalk Presented by SNICKERS
The original zombie myth came to life in the swamps and bayous of New Orleans decades ago. Now the spirits are calling the Caddo Lake Barge area their new home. Cursed are those that enter the Voodoo Swamp!
